Welcome to the Cub Den!

About Me

Welcome to 5th grade! We're off to a "Paws"-itively great year! My name is Miss Wilson. I teach science & social studies. Through the implementation of a "Personal Academic Work System," our 5th graders will be "Prepared and Wonderful Students!"

Communication

- 🐾 Google Classroom/Planner: Students are expected to write assignments daily in the planner. (NOTE: WE HAVE NOT DISTRIBUTED PLANNERS YET!) Due dates for homework will be posted in Google Classroom AND in the regular classroom to help with organization.
- 🐾 LiveGrades: LiveGrades will be updated regularly so that student progress can be accurately monitored. Messages may be exchanged through the messaging center. (<https://www.livegrades.com/>)
- 🐾 School Phone: Questions, comments, or concerns, may be addressed via email or school phone. (304) 366-5631
- 🐾 Class Website: Visit the class website for the latest happenings & extra resources to study content.

Special Materials

- 🐾 1 Spiral Notebook for Science
- 🐾 1 Spiral Notebook for Social Studies

Grading Policy

Marion County's grading scale will be used and is as follows:

A= 90%-100% C= 70-79% F= 59% - below
B= 80-89% D= 60-69%

Missing/Late Work

A missing work form must be completed to submit a late assignment. For each day an assignment is late, 10% will be deducted. Work will not be accepted after ten days.

Absent Work

Students are permitted as many days as they missed to complete their absent work located in the designated folder. After the deadline, the work is considered late.

No Name Papers

Unclaimed papers will result in a zero. Once the paper is claimed, the missing work policy will go into effect.

Be a CUB!

C – Come Prepared
U – Use Time Wisely
B – Be Respectful

CUB Rewards for "Paws"-itive Behavior!

PBIS: The school-wide PBIS program will be followed to reward "Paws"-itive behavior.

Consequences

Disciplinary measures as outlined in West Fairmont Middle School's Discipline Policy will be followed. Any student who disrupts in a manner in which the teacher cannot teach or other students cannot learn will be excluded from class immediately.

If necessary, this classroom management plan will be modified accordingly.
